Life Progressions

We are born into an existing progression of change, through which we evolve and grow during our lifetime. Being conscious of our position in this succession of change helps us more clearly define and understand ourselves. An awareness of our current life situation relative to a larger, evolving chain of events helps us negotiate the challenges that confront us in our daily lives.

This Life Progression report (based on the technique of Secondary progressions) describes experiences and understandings relative to particular aspects, thus depicting the effect of these planetary aspects on an individual. The report covers a period of at least one year. The time period covered by the text varies according to the nature of the astrological event associated with each paragraph. A paragraph referring to a progressed Moon will cover a much shorter period than one referring to the zodiacal sign on a progressed house cusp. This report is intended to enhance the natal chart, not to replace it. The two go hand-in-hand. The progressed chart brings to fruition the promises of the natal chart.

Libra on the First Cusp

A strong desire for companionship and sociability prevails. You are desirous of maintaining peace and harmony at all costs. You try to be just and fair when making decisions, as you attempt to see both sides of an issue. Women are likely to enter your life, helping or hindering personal or business affairs. You may be called upon to attend social functions or group-related activities (conventions or business meetings) in connection with your vocation. You prefer working in collaboration with others, rather than alone. As a result you may be drawn into a partnership or work in close association with groups of people. There is the possibility of entering marriage. For those already married, issues surrounding your partner will require your undivided attention. Be sure to maintain balance in your system by drinking plenty of water, which may help prevent possible kidney problems. The position of your progressed ascendant ruler, Venus, will provide additional insight into circumstances and motivational influences touching your life at this time.

Mars in Libra

The progressed position of Mars into the sign of Libra can stimulate and activate both social and public interests. Your impulsive nature may draw you into partnerships or close ties that are not conducive to your well-being. Once these impulsive attractions begin to wear off, you may find it difficult to break away from them. There will be times when your energies and your emotions will either work together or against each other, causing you to alternate between passivity and aggressiveness. This can be difficult to cope with, requiring true cooperativeness of the internal and external self. The men that may touch upon your life are likely to be very charming, gracious, well mannered, and of a professional background. Others may be married or experiencing problems with their ex-spouses.

Mars in the First House

You're on a roll, with loads of energy to spare. You're feeling aggressive, independent, and eager to begin new projects. Just pace yourself a bit, so you don't antagonize others with abrupt and impulsive actions. There is initiative, with personal involvement in new ventures or undertakings. You are striving for independence and freedom of movement in everyday affairs. New ideas that offer exciting challenges appeal to you now. This placement reacts strongly on a personal level, where one is forced to take the lead in certain situations or activities. You may experience a noticeable lack of cooperation from others. Learn to handle tasks and arrive at decisions on your own. Exercise patience in driving, daily activities, and contact with others, as this planet can arouse the tendency toward carelessness, argumentativeness, and disputes. It is also associated with cuts, bruises, burns, migraine headaches, and accidents.

Mars Conjunction Moon (Prg-Nat) Sep 9, 2006

There will be an additional flow of physical and mental energy during the next three months. Be aware of this tendency, so that you can exercise caution and yet accomplish much by carefully directing this energetic activity toward the handling of difficult tasks. Find a constructive outlet, and yet at the same time be constantly aware that accidents can lurk around the corner. Use caution in all matters, especially in travels. This is not the time for rash actions and impulsive behavior that you may later regret. Avoid hasty or careless decisions, losing your temper, and going to extremes. Caution, moderation, and tolerance can help to prevent abrupt speech and serious quarrels. See your physician if fevers or infections persist.

Jupiter in the First House

There is a distinctive positive change in your personality. Self-expression radiates through an optimistic spirit of cheerfulness, sincerity, and pleasant mannerisms. The influence of this planet is always more or less fortunate. Being the planet of luck, it can bring opportunities for successful enterprise, business, travel, or continuing your education. An excellent placement for writers, educators, religious individuals, and wide-scale communication systems such as those connected with the U. S. Postal Service, radio, television, newspaper, published material, interstate travel, exports, and aeronautics. Involvement in lawsuits or seeking legal action against another is possible. In-laws people from all walks of life, background, race, and professional standing, will enter your life.

Neptune in the First House

Others are beginning to view you as being somewhat moody and temperamental when actually you may be taking a stand against the tiresome routine of being gullible and manipulated. You will consciously or unconsciously take on the conditions of your surroundings and of those with whom you come in contact. With this in mind, be very selective of friends and of those in your immediate environment. Maintain an atmosphere of peace and serenity through light-colored walls and furniture. You may have the ability to develop the art of visualization -- to view in your mind's eye the problem that confronts you at the moment -- and the capacity to reach a solution quickly and accurately. When discordant situations arise, leaving you feeling emotionally drained and upset, seek escape through long walks in the woods, fishing, boating, swimming, or music, or just return to bed for a few more hours of harmless daydreaming. Avoid the temptation for release through alcohol or drug abuse. Your life may be influenced by psychics, mediums, musicians, physicians, and those who are mentally, emotionally, or physically handicapped, or have a dependency upon medication, drugs, or alcohol.

Libra on the Second Cusp

Money gravitates more through the resources of others than through your personal action. The social and public side of life will also react upon personal finances. If used constructively, it is possible to make valuable contacts that will aid in increasing your income. Your productivity is greater when you are working in collaboration with others, rather than alone. Relying on another can assist in financial increase; however, a poor choice of business or marriage partner can bring reversals, resulting in heavy losses and worry. Beautiful surroundings and a comfortable existence will have greater appeal at this time.

Venus in Libra

As Venus progresses into the sign of Libra, you will find your social life increasing. Formerly you were content to remain a loner, but others are drawing you out of your self-imposed isolation. They are attracted to your new outgoing, genial, and companionable nature. You are developing an air of finesse, charm, and graciousness of manner. Discordant environments have always disturbed you in the past. Lately, you may find upsetting conditions even more intolerable, almost to the point of making you ill. This placement of Venus can lead to a possible engagement, marriage, or family increase. Partnerships or close unions can aid or hinder personal progress.

Venus in the Second House

You may find yourself in a position in which there is a blending of the financial with social or public affairs. Diplomacy, correctness in manner, finesse, and charm will be a big plus in aiding financial gains, especially in areas requiring public contact. Although you like the good things of life and may spend quite a bit on clothes, furniture, and entertainment, your innate sense of security will not permit you to go overboard to the point of extravagance. You will have the ability to build up financial reserves and resources, for this placement can bring a good deal of success in all monetary pursuits. Women and partnerships provide the backdrop for monetary gains or losses.

Scorpio on the Third Cusp

Where circumstances warrant it, you will always come through with your persuasive charm and refinement of speech. But, something has happened or will soon occur that will alter your communicative style. A close encounter or experience with death, a sexual rejection, or a frustrating emotional impact may reveal a somewhat cynical attitude. You have the capacity to accomplish a great deal through sheer persistence and will-power. You have a fertile imagination and can be fond of secrets, the mysterious, and the occult. Letter writing, phone calls, and short trips may be required in connection with social security benefits, insurance settlements, alimony, income tax, and inheritance. During this trend, a secret matter is likely to surround the affairs of a brother or sister.

Moon in Sagittarius

The secretive, sensitive trends of the past few years are changing for the better. An optimistic, outgoing, and genial attitude will draw new friends and acquaintances into your social circle. They will be of different nationality, and from all walks of life. If travel is not feasible, than correspondences from distant places are likely. You are positive in your views concerning your future aspirations. There is a willingness to seek new opportunities for advancement in business and in personal affairs -- new vocational interests in which there is freedom of movement and decision. Thoughts will be centered on whether or not you should return to school and further your education. There is a possibility that religion, travel, publications, legal matters, or in-laws will require personal attention. This is a good time to join a health spa or participate in an exercise program that increases natural energy. Note the house position of your progressed Moon to determine the area of life this sign is likely to influence.

Moon in the Third House

This is one of the busiest trends of your life. Activities are centered around frequent short trips, phone calls, and letter-writing. Direct your restless mind into new channels. Golfing, model-making, knitting, or study courses will aid in keeping from fretting about insignificant worries. An emotional bond may be formed between yourself and a sibling or neighbor. Do not permit your mind to dwell on past slights or what you feel was a personal affront or criticism. The sign position of your progressed Moon may disclose positive outlets for mental expressions and studies.

Moon Sextile Mars (Prg-Prg) Feb 23, 2006

There is likely to be a noticeable increase of energy flow and activity into your life during the next three months. This is a good time to accept new and challenging ventures that you would not have considered in the past. Take advantage of your good health and increased vitality. Make positive changes in your personal affairs. You can advance through the application of your own merits and efforts during this trend.

Moon Sextile Moon (Prg-Nat) Mar 6, 2006

Beneficial changes of minor consequences should make for an interesting period. This is a good time to seek occupational changes, make new friends, travel, move, or purchase real estate. Women, in particular and people in general will sense your emotional sensitivity and possibly be of beneficial assistance in personal or business interests.

Moon Sextile Jupiter (Prg-Nat) Apr 20, 2006

Good fortune smiles at you through general prosperity or material gain. It is a good time to push personal and business affairs, and take advantage of new opportunities for future expansion. You may get a chance to travel or experience pleasurable contacts from those living in distant cities. Your positive outlook during this trend should bring you in touch with new friends or acquaintances and increase social contacts.

Moon Sesquiquadrate Saturn (Prg-Prg) May 15, 2006

You can make great strides during the next three months if you concentrate on projects that are difficult to handle and require an isolated condition from which to operate. Affairs connected with finances or business matters will be rather depressing. You are likely to brood or worry over delays in personal affairs. This is not the best time to ask favors of bosses, parents, or older individuals, or for beginning new projects. Your system may be sluggish, so get plenty of rest to renew your lowered vitality during this trend.

Moon Opposition Uranus (Prg-Nat) May 21, 2006

A rebellious spirit prevails which may instill a desire to break away from existing habits, routines, and customs. You may wish to replace established methods with new and improved ones. In some cases this may result in breaking up old ties while forming new, strange, and unconventional relationships. In your haste to bring about these changes, you can be met with much opposition and misunderstanding with close ties or family members. This is not the best time to force changes, make major decisions, travel, or sign important agreements. Be aware that possible accidents and peculiar experiences may be lurking around the corner.

Moon Trine Venus (Prg-Nat) Aug 1, 2006

Unless other conditions are prevailing in your life, this should be one of the best periods for financial success and social advancements. Your feelings and emotions are aroused and will find a satisfactory outlet through present or new attachments. Should situations permit, this may be the time for engagements or marriage. Social functions, invitations, and receiving of flowers or gifts are highlighted. One may also look forward to a prosperous time for finances or investments. While these opportunities may present themselves, it will be up to you to take the initiative and promote these activities into action.

Moon Opposition Midheaven (Prg-Prg) Aug 12, 2006

There is an emotional pull between family responsibilities and career interests. You may have to find a way in which to blend the two areas together. Changes are likely to affect your immediate environment, through the possibility of moving or enlargement of your present home. Purchase or sale of property may also be given consideration.

Moon Sesquiquadrate Ascendant (Prg-Nat) Aug 20, 2006

Emotional and domestic difficulties, especially where women are concerned. They are likely to be a source of irritation or interference with personal plans. This could result in a break-up of close emotional ties -- perhaps a separation from a loved one or parent. If running for public office, it would be wise to seek the counsel of someone experienced in public relations. Your own image will not project as well as you would prefer. A PR person can help to smooth the rough edges.

Moon Trine Midheaven (Prg-Nat) Oct 24, 2006

This is a three-month period in which one should take advantage of all opportunities for advancement and positive career changes. You have great rapport with bosses, those in authority, and the general public. This is a good time to contact those who can help you rise to a higher social status. You may receive an award or recognition for a personal achievement, possibly get your name or photo in the local newspaper, or appear on television or radio.

Moon Sesquiquadrate Mercury (Prg-Nat) Nov 12, 2006

A possible lack of mental clarity may require the use of caution regarding speech and the written word. Misinformation and false statements can lead to quarrels and disputes with business deals, neighbors, or family members. It is best to ignore unreliable rumors and gossip that can open you up to verbal attacks and possible quarrels. Delays and setbacks make it an unfortunate period for travel, business, or starting new ventures.

Moon Sesquiquadrate Pluto (Prg-Nat) Dec 5, 2006

Emotional outbursts may be unleashed against those whom you feel are trying either to dominate you or to create changes that are upsetting to your environment. Although these changes may be necessary in the scheme of things, you may find it difficult adjusting to them. The altering of these conditions may result in separation from loved ones, and finding it hard to let go. It may be parents moving to a distant city, a child getting married, loss of an older member of the family, or a divorce. Whatever the circumstances, your domestic and emotional feelings will undergo an intense change.

Moon Quincunx Saturn (Prg-Nat) Jan 3, 2007

You may be required to take on an additional responsibility that could easily drain your energy -- perhaps working longer hours at your place of employment or having to care for an ill parent or other older member of the family. You should maintain an optimistic state of mind, and avoid complaining. Mental depression will only hinder future advancements and possibly have an affect upon your health.

Moon Sextile Venus (Prg-Prg) Feb 22, 2007

Unless other conditions are prevailing in your life, this should be a happy, relaxed, and successful period -- one in which you should take advantage of all opportunities for social advancements. Do what you can to make yourself available for new contacts that can lead to successful linking of associations. Emotions and feelings are stirred, adding new zest to the marriage state or drawing attention from the opposite sex, if single. A general improvement of financial success, receiving of social invitations, flowers, or gifts is indicated.

Moon Trine Mercury (Prg-Prg) Aug 8, 2007

Your mental energy is stimulated and flows with a positive influence. It should be easy at this time to learn and grasp more knowledge than usual -- to undertake, and pass, driving or written tests. This is a fortunate and successful period for all mental applications. Excellent for writing, handling of correspondence, and negotiations -- buying or selling of property and real estate. Be alert for new business opportunities. Favorable trends for traveling, and for affairs of siblings and other close relationships.

Moon Square Neptune (Prg-Nat) Oct 19, 2007

You may feel an urgency to temporarily escape from reality by seeking hidden places of isolation either physically or mentally. You may wish to escape from all the confusing elements that appear to be surrounding your environment at this time. You may have frightening or weird experiences with ghosts or possible contacts with past deceased individuals. Upsetting dreams or nightmares may cause sleepless nights. Be careful in dealings with others who, through some unusual influence, may try to deceive or drain you of your vitality and energy. Trying conditions or events can make this a sorrowful time, bringing you in touch with individuals who may be terribly ill and who may draw upon your impressionable and supersensitive sympathies.

Moon Sesquiquadrate Venus (Prg-Nat) Nov 5, 2007

Do not place too much emphasis on events or relationships that surround your life during this trend. You can be easily hurt by placing stronger attachments to matters or individuals than is really there. Your feelings and emotions are liable to suffer by the thoughtless actions of another. Best to keep your emotions under control during this short duration, to avoid possible quarrels or separation from loved ones. There is also the possibility of some financial loss or setbacks.

Sagittarius on the Fourth Cusp

In all likelihood, one or both of the parents may do a lot of traveling, move to a distant city, become an instructor, or write published material. Or, you may do loads of writing, studying, or storage of published material in your home. If married, you will probably have activities centered around your marriage partner's side of the family, rather than your own. Should incidents arise in connection with legal action and your property, don't sign any important documents without the advice of a competent attorney.

Capricorn on the Fifth Cusp

Any of the practical arts would be a good outlet for a hobby at this time, most especially ceramics, earthenware, and pottery. Your free-spirited manner in the romance department is ebbing. Something has changed your attitude. You have become more reserved and cautious. There is an invisible, protective wall around your heart that no one can penetrate. It is apparent that you must be assured of their feelings before you openly express yours. You may be drawn to those who are older, mature, or of professional standing. You are highly ambitious for your children to succeed. As a result, you may overly concern yourself with their affairs. You worry too much about your credit rating to invest unwisely. Certificates that produce higher interest rates after a prolonged period are your safest bet.

Pisces on the Sixth Cusp

You feel intuitively that your future calls for a change in your vocation. If in the past you have worked in the medical or institutional field, you may consider returning to that profession. Others may go for psychiatry, photography, or merely operating a beverage store or a bar. Environmental conditions appear to have a strong influence on your state of mind and ability to handle your work-related tasks. Arguments, confusion, and frequent upheavals at work can play havoc with your nervous system. Try to avoid those that upset you emotionally, mentally, or physically to prevent any reaction on your health.

Aries on the Seventh Cusp

New individuals and associates of the aggressive, independent, and decisive type are likely to enter your life during this trend. You may see a changing situation developing in partnerships, marriage, or business. They are starting to take the lead in personal actions and enterprise. Compromise will be the theme word to avoid confrontations when you feel they are getting too bossy. Your social life should take an active upward trend.

Aries on the Eighth Cusp

During this trend, you may have to resort to aggressive tactics in the settlement of financial claims from car or house insurance, sick benefits, or alimony. Mercury Semisquare Mars (Prg-Prg) Jul 28, 2006

There appears to be a high degree of increased nervous stimulation coupled with an overactive mentality. You don't mean to be abrupt and cutting in your speech, but the impulsive nature of this tendency inclines you to act rashly, without due consideration for the feelings of others. You can fly off the handle in a burst of temper to innocent remarks made by others. This is not the best time for making important decisions, signing documents, or traveling. Use caution with personal and business affairs to avoid fraudulent circumstances. Your circle of friends will no doubt be limited. But, in relationships they will be both dependable and lasting. Some will be younger than yourself, while others may be considerably older. The majority of them will be met through your place of employment or be involved with government and politics. Any organization you join will have to maintain a certain amount of prestige and respectability for you to remain loyal. Social contacts, a boss, or a father-in-law, may disagree with your expansive ideas and prove disappointing in providing assistance. This is not the best time for travel, lawsuits, religious conflicts, or undertaking new ventures. It is best to avoid excess, live quietly, and remain in the background until this trend passes. There is the possibility of loss or separation from an in-law or someone who lives in a distant city.

Sun Semisquare Saturn (Prg-Nat) Sep 13, 2006

This a difficult and trying three-year trend in which the vitality and energy level are lower than usual. You will have to safeguard your health by taking necessary precautions. Get flu shots, if possible, and protect yourself against colds which are likely to linger on. You will have to maintain a positive outlook on life to avoid bouts of mental depression that may occur from time to time. If you feel a lack of interest in social affairs, then use that extra time wisely. Decide what it is that you always wanted to accomplish but never had the time. Then organize your life in a constructive manner around this project and work diligently until it's completed. You will triumphantly emerge from this difficult influence, with a profound project that would not have been possible before. Be realistic in your goals, and accept the fact that progress in personal and business affairs will be confronted by hindrances and delays. There may be a possible loss of friends or someone in the domestic circle.
