Introduction

The Relocation Chart

A relocation chart is simply an ordinary natal horoscope moved to a different location. It's a chart cast for the same cosmic instant of birth, but looked at from another location, as if the birth happened there. The planets' sign positions all remain the same, but they will appear in different houses at different locations, thus altering their strengths and areas of influence. So, if you were born in New York, for instance, and then moved to Paris, your relocation chart would have any first house planets shifted about 90 degrees clockwise into the tenth house; tenth house planets would be shifted into the seventh house, and so on, thus giving your natal chart a whole new look for your Parisian adventures. In fact, if it turns out to be a significant improvement, you might even want to move there. Or, perhaps you might just want to visit when you are doing the kind of things that your Paris relocation chart favors -- work, play, health, creativity -- depending on your planets' relocated house positions.

The Relocation Map

Although any one relocation chart opens up new possibilities for you when you travel, if you put a lot of them together and trace them on a map you get a set of marked-out roads of opportunity that stretch around the world, each of which will add strength and emphasis to specific parts of your personality and potential. There is a geographical ribbon running many thousands of miles around the globe, every mile of which gives you Mars rising, adding to your energy and individual power whenever you are on it. Another gives you the Sun rising, another, the Moon, and so on. Around the other side of the earth are similar routes on which your planets are always exactly setting, on the cusp of the seventh house. Similarly, there are north-south pathways each 12,000 miles long where individual planets are on your Midheaven or IC if you go to them. Together, they make up an often-intersecting set of personal highways, a grid of 40 planetary lines that mark out your chart's strongest places for relocation, where one or more natal planets are on the angles.

And if that's not enough potential roads to travel on, there are a total of 180 global lines that depict where your 45 major planetary midpoints are on the angles, adding a subtle substructure to your planetary potential. Altogether, they depict your own personal World Wide Web of highways and byways that add special strengths to your chart and promise new heightened adventure and return for simply taking a trip. You'll find that there's hardly a place on the planet you can go without discovering a new slant on life, a new take on what you already have working inside you.

Windows Of Opportunity

Finally, as your personal progressions and transits move along and affect your natal chart, these same changes will be touching your relocation chart as well, but often quite differently. This will mean that certain parts of the world open up as unique windows of opportunity for a limited, but golden time. A look at these will tell you not only where to travel, but when is the optimum time to be there as well. Find out the best of where and when, and then book your ticket, with the stars on your side.

The Armchair Traveler

You don't have to actually show up at a strong relocation place to have it affect you. You may well find that areas where you have locality planets, midpoints, transits, or progressions on the angles have a way of waltzing into your life unannounced, or that you'll find yourself dealing with people who live there in a way that is described by your chart in that locality. In the era of electronic world travel, you may not need to go out of your door to find your different relocation charts working for you.

Angles in Signs

Ascendant in Capricorn

You may seem a little more serious and somber in this environment than your usual self, but use that to your advantage, as you will appear to have more weight and impact than you might otherwise. If you show your experience, it will be accepted at face value, even if you're just feeling out your position at the time.

Midheaven in Scorpio

Chances are no one will really know what to make of you here, partly because you wear camouflage you may not even be aware of. Your secrets are your own, but it can be a balance between keeping what's yours and seeming to hide something that's not even really there. You must use, and sometimes defuse, fertile imaginings that result.

Planets on Angles

Any planet on one of the angles (Ascendant, MC, Descendant, IC) of your relocation chart will be greatly strengthened when you are at the place of relocation, very much like if it were on the angles of your natal chart. If the Sun is on an angle, you'll have more confidence; if Mars is there you'll have more energy, and so on. Moreover, you don't have to actually go there to get the effect. Having a planet on a relocated angle will accentuate that place for you even if you are only doing business with people there over the phone. You have an accentuated quality to people in such places that you may not have elsewhere.

Natal Moon Ssq DS (Strong)

Getting your feelings across here may be a challenge, and you may have to repeat yourself more than once to achieve it. It may be partly about relating to the local culture, partly that you are challenged to put things into words you had taken for granted before in your previous situation.

Moon in Fifth House

You could feel like you're in playland here -- at least, the juices of love and creativity will definitely start to flow if you give them half a chance. A great place to visit, and maybe to stay for a while, especially if you're in any form of the arts. Your kids will love it, too, and you'll feel a bit like a kid yourself.

Natal Neptune Sxt AS (Strong)

You have imagination -- your own and others' -- going for you here, and playing parts may come quite naturally to you, without having to give up your own true identity. A sense of what people would like to see you as comes naturally, and so does your natural ability to actually fit the idealized mold.

Neptune in Tenth House

You may spend some time and effort straightening out what people say about you, as what you do is a bit of a mystery by nature in this clime. That's not your fault, and you can use it to your advantage. Just be aware that the buzz, for better or worse, is inaccurate (though perhaps flattering) and thus subject to change.

Natal Mercury Sqr MC (Strong)

Mixed messages may seem like the norm here, and you should always have an eye out for spin control in case someone has misinterpreted something they've heard about you. It's not necessarily hurtful, just confusing, so take the time for that second and third press release until you've got everybody on your page.

Mercury in Seventh House

This can be just the place to come for an influx of ideas from new associates, others in your line of interest or work. The new partner that perfectly fills out the other part of your personal plans may be awaiting you here, so keep an eye out. At any rate, you'll find lots to think about if you let others in.

Natal Jupiter Sqr IC (Medium)

Living up to overstated expectations here can be challenging, and overpublicity can leave you in the dust as quickly as it put you on top. People can get too much of a good thing, so do what you can to see that they only hear about your best efforts and don't have to wade through draft versions or needless revisions you let escape in good faith.

Jupiter in First House

You can easily look like the latest with the greatest here, so feel free to sell yourself accordingly. Don't give away the store, but still be generous on a daily basis, as it will be expected of someone who is on top of what's happening. To the extent you appear bountiful, bounty will be yours.

Natal Neptune On MC (Mild)

This place is where other people dream you ought to be -- and when you're there, you'll be seen through rose-colored glasses (or, contrarily, through a glass darkly).

Envisioned as somewhere between Bali Hi and Shangri-la, you will have to get down to daily life here while sustaining a vision or image of what you are doing that may be quite different or entirely concocted. You might as well roll with that, because hearsay will have you doing things you didn't anyway, so go ahead and paint the illusion you want. In that light, this is also a great place for putting out your ideal vision of the world and making your fantasies heard, as you'll find that if you do you'll attract all sorts of help in making them all come true. Better even than a field of dreams, you don't even have to build it -- just imagine it, and they will come. If you're in any field where creative vision is central, such as the arts, you may find this to be a perfect headquarters from which to fashion and broadcast your message and creations. Just remember, when the dream world looms large, to touch ground so you remain the controlling director of your life script.

Natal Venus On DS (Mild)

There is a certain allure here that pleases, attracts, and gives you satisfaction the moment you arrive. In fact, that may well be what brings you here -- something that you need that only this place offers. Similarly, your ability to please and charm the locals is particularly high, and flattery will get you everywhere. As you draw in the atmosphere your pleasure is evident, and simply saying so is a compliment in itself. The allure of pure desire is particularly strong here, so keep it at a positive and generous level and don't let it devolve into mere selfishness and self-gratification. Seduction is in the air, but the ultimate question is, who is being seduced and to what end? Beauty and satisfaction may be at your fingertips, so learn to sip it artfully and resist the temptation to gorge where your hunger is strongest or your needs most demanding. There's a treasure chest to be mined, and the more wisely you mete it out to yourself, the more permanent your receipts. When you invest as much as you take out, the rewards will only grow, so use this potential wisely and you'll always want to come back for more, and be welcome to it.

Venus in Sixth House

What's routine to others here may seem especially charming and inviting from your vantage point. There's something about the way the day goes that has unique appeal -- perhaps it opens up new ways of showing your creativity, or it just eases and decorates everyday life. It's what you bring to it that makes the difference.

Paran Latitude Lines

Moon-Sun Latitude Line at 42N32'08"

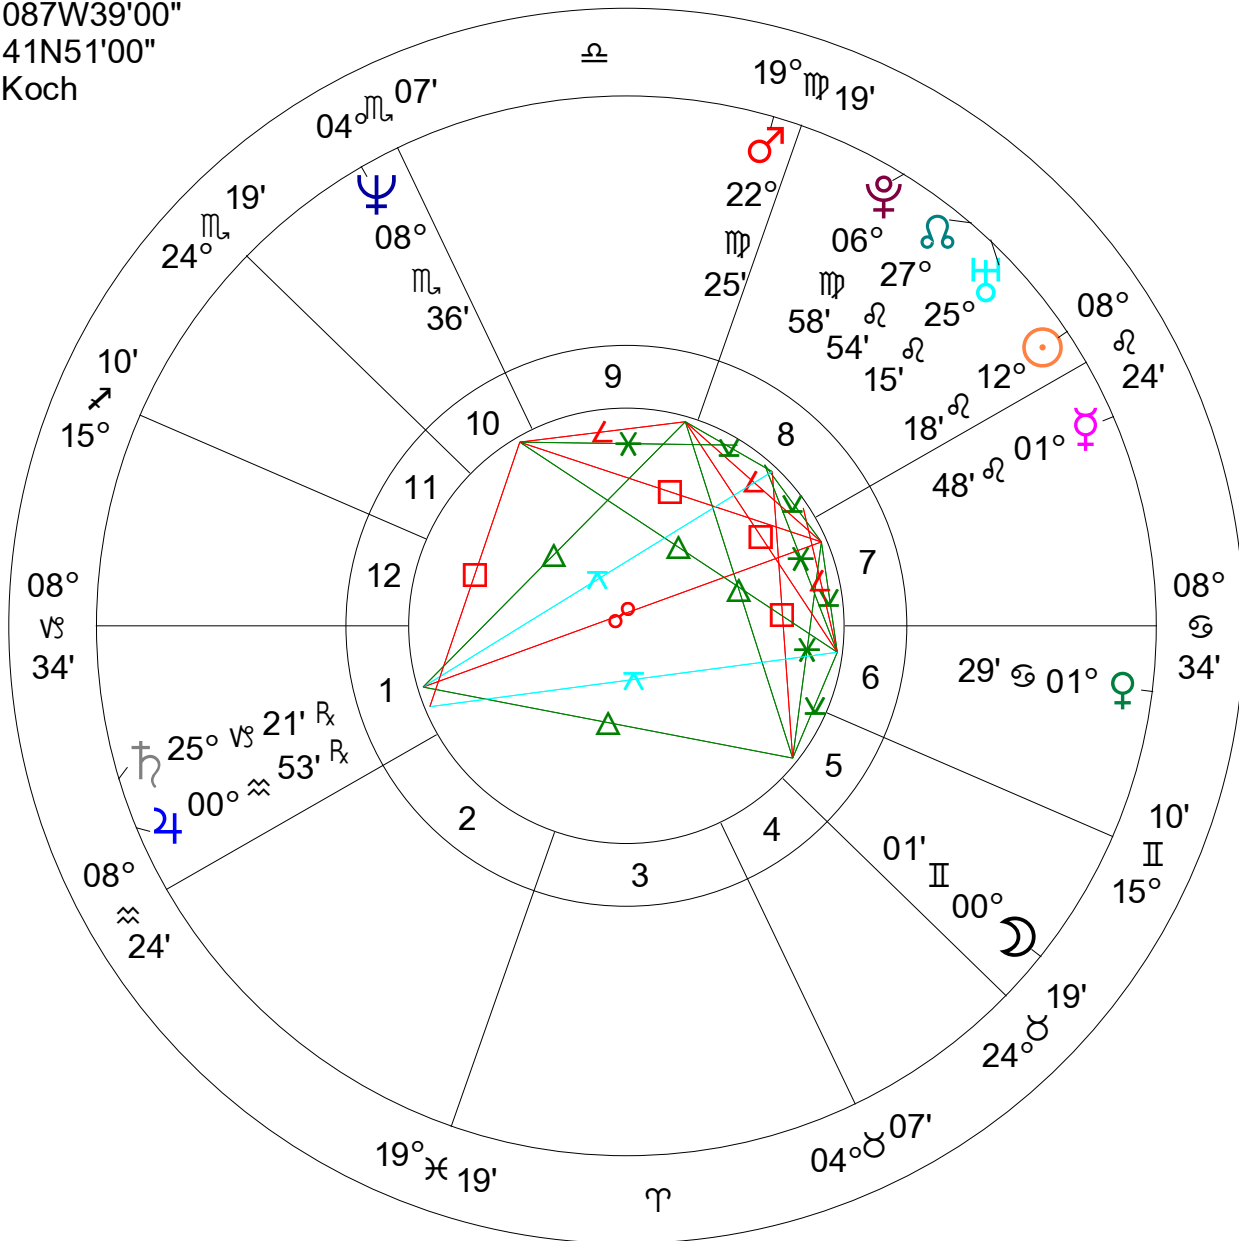

There's a central pull to this place that could have you orbiting it forever, or feeling you ought to. It's as if your feet are always on the ground, or at least your heart is, and that destiny has a hand in what happens to you here. Don't be surprised to meet new people you just know are old family, as if you've got something owed to you here and maybe some old debts to repay as well. Call it crazy, call it karmic, but it comes calling no matter what your approach, so don't feel you can just dip in and move on. There's more gravity for you here than you may know, so be ready to take and experience actions with far consequences.
